Note-2

Santa Fe Indian School closed in 1958. The facilities were opened again in 1964, as the Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA). IAIA was closed again in 1978. See IAIA in the closed school file.

In the fall of 1979, the Albuquerque Indian School was moved from its campus in Albuquerque to the old SFIS campus. See Albuquerque Indian School in the closed school file. With the move of AIS to Santa Fe, the BB team used the orange and black uniforms of the Albuquerque school. However, by the time new uniforms had to be purchased, the school had changed its name back to Santa Fe Indian School.

The old colors (Maroon and gold) came back and SFIS resumed as it was in earlier years,
